KETTLE Carriage Barn bed & breakfast

A unique Bed & Breakfast where you can bring your horse. Tucked among the rolling hills and scenic country roads of southern New Hampshire you will stay at The Carriage Barn Equestrian Center, which is located approximately 40 miles north of Boston, off Route I-95 and I-495.

In the English tradition of vacation accommodations in a private home, The Kettle House at Sarah's Way welcomes a limited number of guests to our late 1800's Kettle Carriage Barn. Walk into the carriage barn of a wealthy Boston merchant. The antique sleighs and carriages whisper stories of horses and families—the way we were.

There are four beautifully appointed, rustic bedrooms which reflect a unique Americana atmosphere. They share a modern bath and a common sitting area upstairs. On the first floor there is a fully-furnished kitchen and eating area overlooking the paddocks.

If you don't have your own horse, but would like to learn how to ride, we offer private lessons. You may also learn to drive our Haffingers put to new and antique carriages.

• Other packages can be arranged with Carriage Barn Management to suit your schedule and training needs.

CARRIAGE EVALUATION MAINTENANCE APPRAISALS

Antique & Modern

The Carriage Barn's staff is committed to professional in-service training with the finest equestrian clinicians. We are constantly seeking to advance our knowledge and improve the care we give to our equine residents and their owners. The staff has excellent experience in the specialized care of mares and foals.

Our professional memberships include the New Hampshire Horse Council, The American Driving Society, Carriage Association of America and various breed and breeders organizations.

The development team that created Jacob's & Sarah's Way and The Carriage Barn Equestrian Center includes an award-winning builder and developer, and world-class equestrians.

Initially, the site was heavily wooded with spectacular terrain. The team's goal was to preserve as much of these woodlands as possible. From the beginning of our design phase, we have worked to create elegant homes for people who would take advantage of the equestrian facilities, and appreciate the uniqueness of the site.

The Carriage Barn Equestrian Center offers a unique getaway with New England charm where both you and your horse can enjoy the countryside or perhaps participate in our equine facilitated therapy.
